

PRIVACY POLICY

The following discloses the information gathering and dissemination practices for the Brew Free or Die websites, online stores, forums, competitions, apps and divisions including, but not limited to: www.bfd.org & www.brewfreeordie.org.

Information Gathering

Brew Free or Die (BFD) uses Wild Apricot Club Management System which collects, maintains and manages club member information, club finances, and club event registrations.

Wild Apricot allows members to utilize Facebook Connect and Google+ to manage member logins, content submissions and comments. These practices may record Facebook & Google+ IDs and emails associated with content submissions.

Cookies may and will be used to maintain a user's identity between web sessions.

Certain third-party service providers, such as payment gateways, other payment transaction processors, and other cloud type services we use have their own privacy policies in respect to the information we are required to provide to them for your purchase-related transactions.

Wild Apricot privacy policy can be found here: <https://www.wildapricot.com/privacypolicy>

Use of Information

We do not sell any personally identifiable information we gather or develop about our visitors to any third parties for any purpose.

Members can control their privacy settings and email settings by updating their profile.

Security

This site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control.

Contacting Brew Free or Die

For all privacy and policy questions in regards to this website or for users requesting a copy of their personal data or for their data to be removed in compliance with GDPR, please contact info@bfd.org.

Members of Brew Free or Die may request to have their personal data removed from this website and our online systems. If you request to have your personal data removed, you will lose login access to all Brew Free or Die online systems, lose any club benefits and will not receive a refund of any paid membership dues.

The Brewers Association web sites can and may contain links to non-Brew Free or Die web sites. Brew Free or Die is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these websites.

Policy effective date: February 26, 2019.
